Winter 2016!

We were very proud of Holly who presented a wreath on behalf of KPC at the Remembrance Day Service in Kenfig Hill.

Other members who have made us proud include Billy & Jack who did a short healthy cooking video for Children in Need Appeal Week—which features on their website as the "Dim Popty Ping" project. Take 5 mins to have a look—we think they did great!: <http://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/articles/5mBMnfBZ7vBld7d6Gqvr2Jm/dim-popty-ping>

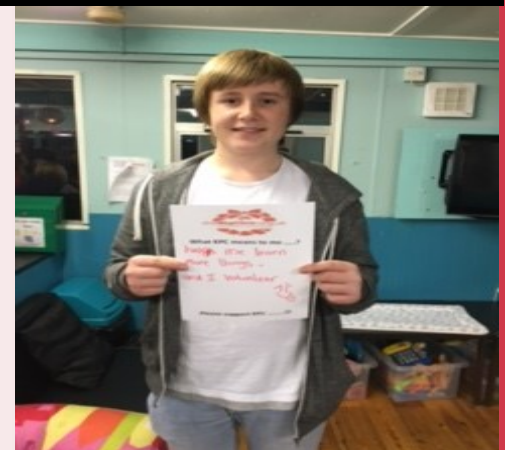

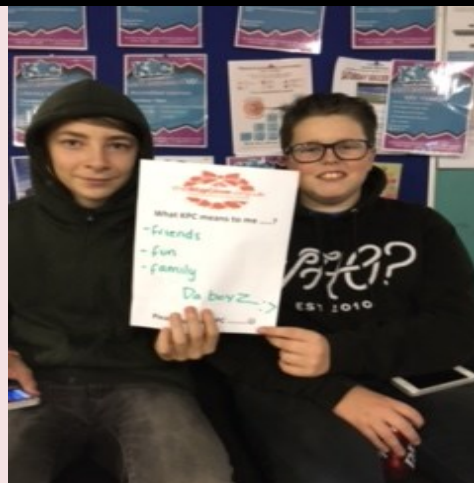

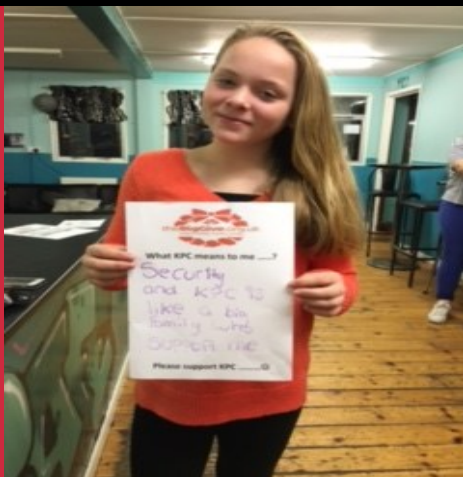

We've still got lots happening before the Xmas break with our Xmas Evening/Fayre taking place at Pyle RFC on Tuesday 6th December from 6 pm—all are welcome to come along, browse at the stalls, and buy some festive foods/gifts. We are also being joined by the fabulous choirs from Pil Primary School and Cynffig Comprehensive School—who will give us some Xmas entertainment during the evening. We also have a visit from Santa for the young ones. We have a few stalls left if there are any crafters out there who would like to reserve one.

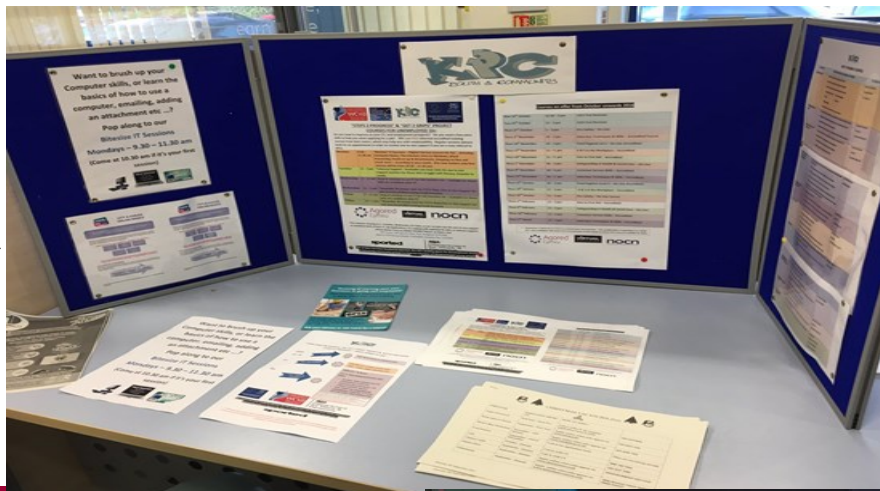

Proud to be part of our local Remembrance Day Service!
